Accordionettes Appear In Diversified Programs

The Accordionettes' recent programs include a show for the Bellflower Sportsmen, a program for the Torrance Catholic Altar society on the occasion of their silver tea, the Waveria PTA during their annual picnic and a fifth anniversary party at the Koerner Heights Trailer park.

Other programs were an hour variety show for the Moose and Lions picnic at Torrance park; the Townsend club at their meeting in the Woman's clubhouse; the MI-N-Yore Fun club. The Carnival of Lights in Wilmington to inaugurate that city's new street lights was another occasion when the Accordionettes entertained, playing encore numbers for several thousand enthusiastic persons.

Last week the Accordionettes entertained San Pedro Eastern Star chapter members and also the Athena club, of the Barbara

VENICE HIGH SCHOOL SCENE OF P.T.A. MEET

"What Can We Do For Peace?" was the topic chosen by Arthur Corey, executive secretary of the California Teachers Association when he spoke before several hundred Tenth District P.T.A. members and guests at the Venice high school Thursday.

Mrs. Joseph S. Hook presided. Beautiful inspiration was given through the almost professional rendition of "This Is My Country" by the Venice high school cappella choir. Mr. Reid Cox directing, and an over-all picture of Community Chest and the needs of its now 159 agencies was presented by Guy Thompson, campaign director for the Los Angeles area. Mrs. Paul Jewel, P.T.A. membership chairman, told of P.T.A.'s membership drive of Oct. 6 to 10, the period declared by Governor Warren to be P.T.A. week.

Betsy Ross Meet Is Postponed To Oct. 28

The regular meeting of Betsy Ross Star club, set for Oct. 21, has been postponed until Tuesday, Oct. 28 at Masonic Temple.

Frances Barrington is Language Major At Mills College

Miss Frances Barrington, Miss Torrance of 1946, has enrolled at Mills college. She will live on campus at Mary Morse hall.

Miss Barrington will major in languages, as a foundation for creative writing in which she hopes to specialize. She was accompanied to Oakland by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Barrington, who remained for a week visiting the college and relatives and friends in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. Spangler, of 1965 W. 218th st., announce the engagement of their daughter Barbara Ann to Mr. Gail Kieth Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Cox, of Manhattan Beach and formerly of this city. No wedding date has been set.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS PRESENT QUAINT BAZAAR SETTING

Original copies of Italian dress will add color to the annual Royal Neighbors Lomita camp bazaar slated to be held Wednesday, October 15, at the VFW hall when a bit of "Old Italy" will meet the eye of those planning to attend the dinner to be served at 5:30 p. m., and take advantage of the many articles on sale at the various booths.

Decorations and Italian costumes will enhance the atmosphere of the Italian setting and those taking part in the annual event are making elaborate plans to make the bazaar one to be long remembered.

Mrs. Beth Mulrein is general chairman of dinner arrangements and she offers a royal Italian dinner with large servings topped off with home-baked apple pie and the best coffee in town, according to her colleague, "Mother" Anderson, who will be the chief coffee-maker.

Hot dogs and coffee will be on sale throughout the afternoon and evening and booths will be filled with beautiful plants and cut flowers, home-made candy, baked goods, fancy work and aprons.

A nominal charge will be made for the dinner and special price allowed for children under 12 years of age.

G. S. Troop 416 Outlines Plans At First Fall Meet

Girl Scout Troop No. 416, sponsored by St. Andrew's Episcopal church, resumed their meetings Thursday in Parish hall, following summer vacation.

President, Ann Olson, elected at the June meeting, introduced her staff: Charlene St. Martin, vice president; Sally Sprout, secretary; Janet Williamson, treasurer; Jane Fischer, chaplain; Barbara Ludwig, reporter and senior patrol leader, and Claudette Buckley, junior patrol leader.

Future troop activities include miniature golf, roller skating, hiking and radio broadcasts. Money-making projects planned are sales of stationery and Christmas cards. The girls will prepare talks on Community Chest, telling of its benefits to Boy and Girl Scouts. Goal of this troop is to have each member attain the rank of First Class Scout, according to Barbara Ludwig, reporter.

Mrs. Ada Kalina Is Complimented At Birthday Fete

Mrs. Ada Kalina was complimented on the occasion of her birthday when members of the Neighborhood club entertained at a surprise luncheon Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Stella Norris. Many lovely personal gifts were presented Mrs. Kalina.

Places were marked for the honoree and Meses. Alice Wasson, Ethel Poits, Margaret Stewart, Peggy Peck, Connie Boos, Margaret Webb and Fern Matthews.

Mrs. Kalina will entertain the group at her home, 1028 Cota ave., on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 15.

Gold Star Mothers Report Meeting; December Bazaar Set

Torrance Memorial Chapter of Gold Star Mothers held an interesting meeting Wednesday afternoon in St. Andrew's Episcopal guild hall.

Mrs. Persia K. Fess conducted the business session when plans were outlined for a bazaar to be held in December.

The next meeting is set for Tuesday evening, Oct. 14 in the legion clubhouse, Redondo Beach.

All members who have not been obligated are requested to contact the president.

Prenatal Film Here

Pointing up the information covered in the class on nutrition, the expectant mothers' class at the Torrance health center, 2300 Carson st., will be shown the films "What Makes Us Grow" and "Something You Didn't Eat" on October 8, Mrs. Mary Ullmer, public health nurse-instructor, has announced.

Although this will be the fourth in the series of subjects covered, prospective mothers may register at any time, as reviews are given later in the course, or the classes missed may be made up at a later date.

There is no charge for registration, these expectant mothers' classes being an educational service of the Los Angeles county health department. Many private physicians are recommending that their prenatal patients attend.

STUDY ABROAD

More than 3,000 World War II veterans are studying abroad under the educational provisions of the GI Bill, the Veterans Administration informed Red Cross workers, the "Jungle Tour" is an all-day affair including hours of trail-blazing, mountain climbing, swimming, hunting and eating.

Foster New Legion Head

New commander of the California Department of the American Legion was installed Thursday at the end of the 29th annual convention, Shrine auditorium, Los Angeles, attended by representatives of the state's 170,000 Legionnaires.

Harry L. Foster, San Diego, a veteran of the first and second world wars, was elected to the post, beating his only opponent, Merl Horn of Los Angeles, with 2838 votes to 1431.

Arthur Nelson, Tujunga, defeated Joe Ayers, Hollywood, for the post of Department Sergeant-at-arms, while the Rev. Theodore Lane of Stockton was elected department chaplain over Gus Griffith of Fresno.

JUNGLE TOUR

Thanks to the American Red Cross, sailors, soldiers and marines stationed on the isolated Pacific reef called Guam have found a strenuous but interesting way to spend Sundays and whatever leisure hours they may have. Arranged by Red Cross workers, the "Jungle Tour" is an all-day affair including hours of trail-blazing, mountain climbing, swimming, hunting and eating.

U.S. Reports On Fascism

Fascism in Action, a document issued by the U. S. House of Representatives, is fast on its way to becoming one of the best selling government documents of this year. Over 10,000 copies of this publication, which is priced at 40 cents, have been sold since it was issued on Aug. 22, and hundreds of orders are being received in each mail according to the Superintendent of Documents, who is the government's book-seller at the government printing office, Washington 25, D. C.

A similar publication entitled "Communism in Action," priced at 25 cents, was issued in 1946 and sales have already passed the 90,000 mark. Both of these publications were prepared by Library of Congress experts at the request of the House of Representatives.

INDUSTRIALIZED FARMING
Industrialized farming has brought urban farm life in its wake, so that farmers live almost exactly as do their counterparts in business and industry, a University of California anthropologist finds.

"ACORN" CALVES
"Acorn" calves result from some unknown food deficiency in the dam's diet between the third and sixth month of gestation, University of California College of Agriculture research has shown.
